

GLL Real Estate Partners is the real estate equity investment platform for Macquarie Infrastructure and Real Assets (the world's largest infrastructure asset manager with 90 billion assets under management) - a division of the Macquarie Group. A globally-active real estate fund manager and investment advisor headquartered in Munich, Germany, GLL operates 16 offices in 12 countries across the US, Europe, Asia, and Australia. The group currently manages EUR 7 billion, including more than EUR 3.4 billion in the U.S. GLL employs varying commercial property strategies serving an investor group that includes pension funds, insurance companies and sovereign entities.

International Real Estate Analyst Program (M,F,D)

Placement and Duration: During the one and a half year program you will be given the opportunity to experience the entire spectrum of an international real estate investment company. Analyst positions are offered in Munich and typically include a visit of one of our foreign offices for up to three months during the course of the program.

Key Responsibilities:

- Assisting and collaborating in the everyday business of a senior person in the department
- Preparing reporting documents, presentations and financial analysis documents
- Working on individual projects within the real estate field including independent tasks and own responsibilities
- Actively attending and contributing to team discussions and client meetings, where you may be asked to deliver parts of the presentation

The Ideal Candidate will have/ will be

- You have an excellent academic background and fluency in German and English; the ability to communicate effectively in further languages is an advantage
- You have strong analytical and communication skills
- You are results-driven, flexible and express a strong willingness to work with different people and to learn from your respective tasks
- You are a self-reliant team player with the ability to manage a wide range of responsibilities
- You are committed to excellence in your work and maintain high professional and ethical standards
- German: fluent in spoken and written

We offer you a unique position in a dynamic international environment with high professional development potential. Job starts as soon as possible. In case you are interested, please send your application to career@gll-partners.com to Claudia Steimer-Lenz.